Join Me for Scrumptious Dinner and Welcome to West Seattle!

Dear Julie and Dave,

Welcome to West Seattle, new neighbors! Circa Grill and Alehouse is our local hub for family dinners, dates, relaxation, and friendly conversation.

Join us at Circa for dinner and get a free piece of dark chocolate cake served warm with vanilla bean ice cream. Available nightly. On the menu for 25 years!

Circa is owned and operated by New Orleans native Bill Evans, his wife Gretchen, a Pacific Northwest native, and their three sons. In business for 27 years, it has consistently good food, high quality ingredients, friendly staff, and a cozy atmosphere.

You'll love the creative New Orleans and Pacific Northwest dishes, grown and harvested locally. Delicious vegetarian and vegan items are on the menu, and every night, additional special dishes are featured.

The antique pub bar has 14 beers on tap, full cocktail menu, and a great wine selection. Happy hours are Monday through Friday from 2:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. The restaurant has wooden booths for two people, an entire family, or a party. Brunch is offered on Saturday and Sunday, with weekday breakfast and lunch. Dinner is served seven days a week.

Circa's menu includes grilled skirt steak salad, Korean-style short ribs, Dungeness crab cakes, shrimp and grits, omelets, mole tacos, and biscuits and country gravy. Circa's casual vibe and delicious comfort food attracts a wide variety of people.

I know you will love Circa as much I do, and I look forward to sharing it with you! Customers write enthusiastic reviews constantly! Here's one:

"Wonderful place with great food and drink options. We had fried green tomatoes to start and meatloaf for the main, both of which were delicious and comforting. We had a good laugh with the waiter; he's an asset to the business. He knew the menu in detail and was able to provide recommendations to suit our tastes. We'll be back! (Adam S.)
